

Sallie Anne Petrucci

Program Associate

Sallie Anne Petrucci, M.P.H., CHES, is a program associate with the Human Capital portfolio. In this capacity she works on the portfolio's objective dedicated to using a coordinated and focused effort to improve the quality, diversity and readiness of the health and health care workforce to improve the health and health care delivery in the United States. Her main interest areas include the frontline workforce and leadership development. Prior to joining the Human Capital Team, she worked with the Tobacco Team on projects to stimulate state and local policy to prevent tobacco use. Before joining the Foundation in July 1996, she worked in investor relations at the Liposome Company and in public relations at Coleman & Pellet, Inc., a private communications firm.

Petrucci is a board member of the New Jersey Public Health Association and the Coalition for World No Tobacco Day, a member of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs Section of the American Public Health Association, and a member of the Society for Public Health Education. She also serves on numerous steering committees.

Petrucci received an M.P.H. degree in sociomedical sciences from the Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health in New York City, and a B.A. degree in communications from Seton Hall University. She is a certified health education specialist.
